

FINAL REPORT

Expert Lecture on "Work Ethics"

The Department of Computer Science & Engineering, in association with the IQAC Cell, successfully organized an Expert Lecture on the topic "Work Ethics" on 08 April 2026 in the Seminar Hall.

The session was delivered by Dr. Govind Singh, Gramoday University, Chitrakoot, Satna (M.P.), who is a renowned academician and expert in the field. The lecture focused on the importance of ethical values in professional life, workplace behavior, discipline, and integrity.

A total of 95 students along with faculty members actively participated in the lecture. The speaker explained various real-life examples and case studies to make the session more interactive and engaging. Students gained valuable insights into professional ethics, responsibility, and moral values required in their careers.

The session also included an interactive discussion where students asked questions related to ethical dilemmas in professional environments, and the expert provided clear and practical solutions.

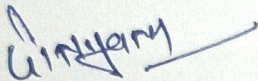

Overall, the lecture was highly informative and beneficial for the students. It helped in enhancing their understanding of ethical practices and professional conduct.

The Department expresses its sincere gratitude to Dr. Govind Singh for delivering such an insightful lecture and to the IQAC Cell for their support in organizing the event successfully.

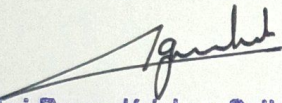

Outcome of the Program:

- Improved understanding of work ethics and professional values
- Awareness about ethical behavior in the workplace
- Development of moral responsibility among students
